of leisure and enjoyment day by day, instead of resolving to do it some day or other, and seldom doing it at all. Company is not necessary for it, at intervals, except that best and most necessary company of one's family-partners in life, or some one or two especial friends, truly so called, who are friends for every sort of weather,—winter as well as summer. A warm carpet and curtains, a sparkling fire, a book, a little music, a happy sympathy of talk, or a kind discussion, may then call to mind with unenvying placidity the very rarest luxuries of the summer-time; and instead of being eternally and foolishly told, that pleasures produce pains, by those who really make ~~them~~ do so with their profligacy or bigotry, we shall learn the finer and manlier knowledge how to turn pain to the production of pleasure.

Mr. Day - 6 Lower Fleet Street Redred 17 Decr 1804 Lawrence of virtuous father, vicious son, and that the news cre'd rank and avv. money, where shall we sometimes meet, and by the fire help us to tell, what may be won, From the hard season gainsing. Time will come On smoother, & Ebonius tempestive The frozen earth, and other foes are The lily and rose, which neither sowed nor spun.
What neat repast shall feast us, light and choice Of Attick taste, with wine, whence we may rise To hear the lute well touched, or artful voice Warble immortal notes and Tuscan air?
He who of these delights can judge, and spare To interpose them oft, is not unwise.

Sonnet
Farley Hill Jan 1st 1819. To M. Fisher, Parfend's song & dance &乐游游!

Auspicious year born in so fair a light of gaiety & beauty! Happy night suited to social pleasure - too free the dear Dispenser - of festivity

The festive green - the morn's pink bright of flowers & the dance - of all delight the gentle master's beautiful type!

O happy night! And oh preceding day so happier! When mid converse before Handel sweet strain came sweetly, & the tune of that old Florentine rose

Canz.; & hearing from his son like rays in the dark tale of Agolino's woes.

river - took a little place with fine village - just off the village - left my dear friend and a friend of mine - dear friend of mine the greatest joy of my life now on the boat - dear Grancy & Emma but we had met the father & son - Mr. Holloman - Lord the Webb - for college to Highgate - about one at Highgate a week & Highgate a week. yesterday - at home - writing to Miss James - walked with Grancy & the Webbs.
this day - at home - walked with dear Emma & Grancy & the Webbs - wrote to Mr. Holloman.
Today 27th - at home - went to Reading in car with dear Emma & Grancy - walked on the road newly made - the railway - very pleasant way - took a walk to dinner - took a walk with them to see his old school - talked of the things which are too difficult but very good.

at Dr. Gandy's - poor darling Mopy was found dead about eleven o'clock after eating an excellent breakfast God in Heaven keep him dear Lord.

22 Sunday

at home - buried my own dear darling beloved pet Mopy God bless him - I shall never have such another darling again.

Since 9 pm to this sweet dear darling - since 9 pm to this sweet home.

My own dear darling Mopy had had a fall about 3 or 4 months ago which he had never quite recovered - the night before he died he was walking with me & feeling unusually well & in great spirits poor boy laid up - but on the Saturday morning he had another fall from which he seemed to recover & ate a good breakfast - but was found dead in the yard as composed & happy looking as if asleep. He had never been fond of me or on the Friday dear dear darling - He buried him in that flowered corner of the middle plantation which is bounded on one side by the ditch in the middle of the plantation & on the other by low hedges etc - he buried him on the bank just of the ditch just where the bluebells & triches grow so nicely that sweet flowered corner - marked the pine tree under which he lies with his initial, I covered his body with all the flowers we could get in the garden - geranium - jasmin flowers - carnations - sweet williams - lantana etc - ginger bower - honeysuckle - honeyuckle every rose we could find - "Sweetest of the week" dearest dear love he was covered the geraniums the roses took the shell long away for his dear sake. George & John Allaway buried him dear darling Dr. Gandy - poor Mopy, many miles off Holland - thin & dry in having a cold on - thought God had broke his heart.
